

Chevron knit pattern.

Row 1 (right side): using color B, sl4 wyib, * sl1 wyib, k2; rep from * until you have 4 stitches left in row; end sl4 wyib

Row 2: using color B, p4, * p2, sl1 wyif; rep from * until you have 4 stitches left in row; end p4

Row 3: using color A, sl4 wyib, [k1, sl1 wyib, (k2, sl1 wyib) three times, k3, (sl1 wyib, k2) 3 times, sl1 wyib] twice, sl4 wyib

Row 4: using color A, p4, [sl1 wyif, (p2, sl1 wyif) three times, p3, (sl1 wyif, p2) three times, sl1 wyif, p1] twice, p4

Row 5: using color B, sl4 wyib, [k2, (sl1 wyib, k2) three times, sl1 wyib, k1, sl1 wyib, (k2, sl1 wyib) three times, k1] twice, sl4 wyib

Row 6: using color B, p4, [p1, (sl1 wyif, p2) three times, sl1 wyif, p1, sl1 wyif, (p2, sl1 wyif) three times, p2] twice, p4

Rows 7 & 8: using color A, repeat rows 1 & 2

Rows 9 & 10: using color B, repeat rows 3 & 4

Rows 11 & 12: using color A, repeat rows 5 & 6

Knit rows 1 - 12 until piece measures roughly 54", or desired length, and you've just finished a wrong side row of the pattern (you can be more persnickety about which wrong side row, if you'd like, but I don't think you need to be). Clip the tail of your color B yarn, since you're done with it. Using color A, knit one transition row, as follows:

Transition Row (right side): sl4 wyib, knit until you have 4 stitches left in row sl4 wyib

Repeat the rib pattern for 1.25 in. then bind off.
